

November 2009

During the month of November we will be focusing on the color, Red and the shape, Square. Some of our stories are, The Napping House, Corduroy, My First Thanksgiving and Polar Bear, Polar Bear. We have many exciting projects that correspond to these attributes. Some of our Choice Time projects are marble painting, corn on the cob painting, potato printing and shaving cream with bubble wrap. Some new songs for this month are: One Little, Two Little, Three Little Pilgrims, and The Turkey is a Funny Bird.

Our Thanksgiving Feast will be held on Tuesday November 24th. Parent's are more than welcome from 2:00-2:30 to celebrate the feast with your child. We will be snacking on yummy food that the two's have helped prepare in celebration for Thanksgiving.

On November 5th the children will have music with Mr. Weber.

Tuesday, November 10th is picture day. We will have be taking individual and group shots at this time.

As the weather is changing and getting colder , we ask that you bring in warm coats, hats and mittens for recess time. We do go outside each day weather permitting.

REMINDERS: Change in Schedule: November 19th and 20th we will have school at 9:30 am –11:30 am instead of in the afternoon. This is due to conferences for the 3's and 4's.

Book Fair: During conference week there will also be a Scholastic Book Fair in the Science Room. Please come up and find some great book for your children and on our teacher's wish list. You will be notified about the specific time you can go.

We are closed: Thursday, November 26th for Thanksgiving break.

Everyone at Three Four Open the Door would like to offer you and your family our prayers and wishes for a healthy, happy Thanksgiving Day.

Miss Lori and Miss Nikki
